

THE BEDFORD COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY
INVITES YOU TO CELEBRATE BEDFORD COUNTY DAY

Bedford, Pa: February 17, 2017...The Bedford County Historical Society invites you to celebrate Bedford County Day with us on Sunday, March 5, 2017, at 2:00 pm at the Hall at Kinton's Knob (BCHS, 2nd Floor), 6441 Lincoln Hwy, Bedford.

This annual celebration features a particular area of Bedford County History each year, and we are privileged this year to bring you a program entitled, "The Lost Children of the Alleghenies".

There will be music presented by the Everett Area High School Tribe, directed by Sean Cogan. Jamey Clark and Ellen Espenshade will sing "The Blue Juniata," a theme song for the Society from their early meetings, as well as "Jacob' Dream", a song that tells the story of the Lost Children. The Bedford County Girl Scouts will present the colors and lead the Pledge of Allegiance.

This celebration commemorates the formation of Bedford County on March 9, 1771. A special flag was produced in 2008 to bring the county together and celebrate this important day. Flags are available for purchase at the Society, 3'x5' and 4"x6". We encourage you to fly your Bedford County Flag on March 9.
