

THE BEDFORD COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY QUARTERLY MEETING
JARED FREDERICK WILL SPEAK ON SPRING OF 1944 D-DAY
RESCHEDULED

Saturday February 8th 2020, at 2:00pm, the Bedford County Historical Society will hold its quarterly meeting with Jared Frederick giving a talk about the Normandy Invasion of Second World War

Please join us as Jared Frederick paints an eloquently moving portrait of the soldiers and home front civilians who were dramatically affected by what Dwight Eisenhower called “the great crusade.” The world held its breath as hundreds of thousands of Allied combatants across the English Channel in the largest amphibious operation of World War 2.

His new book “Dispatches of D-Day” will be available for purchase and Senator John Heinz World War 2 exhibit “WE CAN DO IT” will not be here. But the Bedford County exhibit on soldiers and artifacts will still be on display.

The presentation will be held on the 1st floor of the Society’s barn, 6441 Lincoln Highway, Bedford. For more information contact the Society at (814) 623-2011 or email bedfordhistory@embarqmail.com
