THE BEDFORD COUNTY HISTORICAL SOCIETY ANNOUNCES

“ANNUAL HISTORY BANQUET”

The Bedford County Historical Society is pleased to announce the “Historian of the Years” award for 2019 and 2020. The 2019 Winners, David and Amy Snyder, will be recognized for their renovation of the “Loy Mansion” and research on the history of the village of Loysburg as it relates to the patriarch Martin Loy. The 2020 Winner, Regina Williams, will be recognized for her publications on SHS and Facebook on the townships of Southampton, Mann & Monroe and being one of the leaders to form the Southampton Twp. Historical Society and preservation of the Point Pleasant School.

This year’s speaker will be Dr. Robin L. Cadwallader, professor of English/Communications and Women’s Studies at St. Francis University. In Recognition of passage of the Suffrage Amendment, she will discuss instances of local patriarchal opposition.

They will be honored at the Annual History Banquet on August 14th 2021 at 6:00 PM at the Hall at Kinton’s Knob (2nd floor of the Bedford County Historical Society) 6441 Lincoln Highway, Bedford.

Dinner will be served at the event and tickets are $30.00 each and may be purchased from the numbers listed above.
